Dear Mr. Dulles:

You are cordially invited to attend an Open House at our new warehouse and office building in Beltsville, Maryland, on Sunday, November 8, 2 to 6 P.M.

Our recent occupancy of the new building brought together for the first time the administrative offices, formerly located in Greenbelt, and the warehouse operation, which was in Baltimore. We are now in the Beltsville Industrial Center at 10501 Rhode Island Avenue. This is at the intersection of Rhode Island and U. S. Route 1.

I sincerely hope you can be with us.

Cordially,

Samuel F. Ashelman, Jr.
